NASEP 2013 – Describing and Exploring Early Phenomenology

June 12th – 14th, King’s University College, The University of Western Ontario

*All talks, aside from the Keynote addresses, will be held in the Desmond Dutrizac Boardroom, Dante Lenardon Hall 112.

Wednesday, June 12

8:30am – 9:00: Registration/Coffee (Labatt Hall)

9:00 – 9:15: Welcoming from Dr. David Sylvester, Principal of King’s University College
(Labatt Hall 105B)

Session 1, Chaired by Rodney Parker

9:20 – 9:30: Opening Remarks

10:20 – 12:10 - Edith Stein Circle keynote address: Angela Ales Bello (Lateran University Rome) – “From the Neutral Human Being to Gender Difference: Phenomenological and Dual Anthropology in Edith Stein” (Labatt Hall 101)

12:15 – 1:15 Lunch (Wemple Hall)

Session 2, Chaired by Rodney Parker

1:20 – 2:05: David Koepsell (Delft University of Technology) – “Validity as Justice in Reinach’s Apriori Foundations of the Civil Law”

2:05 – 2:50: Andrew Pfeuffer (Franciscan University of Steubenville) – “Imperative We: Harmonizing Scheler and Kant”

2:50 – 3:35: Maria Gyemant (University of Liège) – “Emotions and Cognitions. The Evolution of the Theory of Emotions in the First Husserl”

3:35 – 3:45 Coffee

Session 3, Chaired by Jeff Mitscherling

3:50 – 4:45: Genki Uemura (Rissho University) – “Ingarden’s Theory of Perception”

4:45 – 5:30: Christian Dupont – “Jean Hering and the Introduction of Husserl’s Phenomenology to France”
Thursday, June 13

9:00am – 9:25 Coffee

Session 1, Chaired by Christian Dupont

9:30 – 10:15: Mark Roberts (Franciscan University of Steubenville) – “Toward an Ontology of States of Affairs”

10:15 – 11:00: Josef Seifert (IAP Spain) in absentia [read by Oliver Heydorn] – “The Receptive Transcendence of Knowledge: Towards a Contentfull Notion of “Early Phenomenology”

11:00 – 11:45: Peter Andras Varga (Husserl-Archives, University of Cologne) – “The roots of Husserl’s divergences in the School of Brentano”

11:50 – 12:55 Lunch (Wemple Hall)

Session 2, Chaired by Corey Dyck

1:00 – 1:45: Charlene Elsby (McMaster University) – “Brentano’s Aristotle and the Intentional Definition of Mental Phenomena”

1:45 – 2:30: Biagio Tassone (Catholic University of America) – “Leonard Nelson’s Challenge to Phenomenology, and a (Husserlian) Response”

2:30 – 3:15: Ben Sheredos (UC San Diego) – “From Act Psychology to Phenomenology”

3:15 – 3:25 Coffee

Session 3, Chaired by Kimberly Baltzer-Jaray

4:15 – 5:45: NASEP keynote address – Lester Embree (Florida Atlantic University) – “Speculations about Bridging the Göttingen-Freiburg Gap in Phenomenology”

5:45: Principal’s Reception (Labatt Hall)

8:00: Dinner at Blu Duby, 125 Dundas Street.
Friday, June 14

9:00am – 9:25 Coffee

Session 1, Chaired by Trevor Bieber

9:30 – 10:15: Vedran Grahovac (University of Guelph) – “Another reading of Derrida’s reading of Husserl: towards the question of ‘phenomenological language’”

10:15 – 11:00: Rogelio Rovira (Complutense University of Madrid) – “On the manifold meaning of value according to Dietrich von Hildebrand”

11:00 – 11:45: John O’Connor (Colorado State University, Pueblo) – “Crossing the Continental Divide: Husserlian Rapprochement”

11:50 – 12:55 Lunch

Session 2, Chair Charlene Elsby

1:00 – 1:45: TBA

1:45 – 2:30: Brian Donohue (SUNY Buffalo) – “Intention and Intentionality”

2:30 – 3:15: Aaron Massecar (King’s University College) – “Peirce and Husserl: Connections at the Turn of the Century”

3:15 – 3:25 Coffee

3:30 – 5:00: Annual General Meeting and Closing Address